

Quality manager m/f

Job and assignments

The quality technician or manager ensures quality control and compliance of the parts, equipments, units and sub-units that are fabricated. He/she makes sure that rules, instructions, procedures and quality processes are well applied. He/she defines the appropriate indicators and control tools, performs analysis and identifies deviation to implement action. His/her position is essential to the achievement of the project, interfacing with the Project Manager, Design and Production.

Work environment

He/she works at the various manufacturing sites onboard and/or in a workshop.

Inter-personal and expert skills

- You are at ease with quality methodology and the reference documents and standards applicable to the marine sector
- You have substantial knowledge of the prerequisites of classification companies and compliance with safety and environmental standards
 - You have a knowledge of CAD/CAM (Computer Aided Design and Manufacturing)
 - You have a feel for analysis and synthesis
 - You have good teaching skills
 - Your exceptional smartness in team work is one of your strengths
 - Your reporting skills enable you to write clear and factual reports and memoranda
 - You are fluent in technical English

Training

BAC +2	▶ Quality, Industrial logistics & Organisation Quality management option
BAC +3	▶ Professional degree in industrial shipbuilding trades
Continuing training	▶ Quality technician ▶ Environment Safety Quality Co-ordinator

Tests technician

Production manager

EHS manager